Mark Preference for Pre-Conference Workshop:

_____ Strategies for Effective Interaction in the Classroom with Susan Spezzini

Participants experience interactive peer-to-peer oral techniques (IPOTs) that promote comprehensible output among ELLs of all ages. Such IPOTs include gap-filling tango, turn & tell, discovery channel, carousel charts, concentric circles, parallel lines, roaming reporters, and hot onion review.

_____ Stories to Learn From with Diane Carter

Participants learn how ESL teachers can use this project to help students learn new vocabulary and improve their writing, reading, speaking and listening skills while sharing their cultures. Teachers learn how to engage students in interviewing, writing stories, sculpting, painting, videotaping or photography, and planning a final event.
